

Spector Criminal Justice Training Network Presents

A.D.F.S.A.

Alcohol and Drug Facilitated Sexual Assault

Date: May 18, 2026

Hours: 0 8 3 0 - 1 6 3 0

Hosted by: University of New Haven Police Dept.

Cost: $ 115.00 per officer

This one-day seminar presented by Christopher Bartolotta is geared for the first responding officer, supervisor or detective in law enforcement in the position of first contact with an individual who has been the victim of an attempted or completed sexual assault. The initial first contact with the victim, witness or suspect is critical to a successful prosecution. Understanding best practices for these types of investigations, at the first level of contact, will help the responding officer, supervisor or detective identify key aspects of the case, stabilize the scene and initiate the investigation. It will also help them to understand how to be successful with this information in the courtroom. This course can also benefit anyone working with a potential victim or one who has been victimized including mental health professionals, security staff at hospitals and establishments that serve alcohol - including bar owners or bar staff, entertainment venue staff, campus security, TABI and Title IX Teams, or R.A.'s of universities.*

About the Instructor

Christopher Bartolotta

Christopher Bartolotta was employed by the State of Connecticut's Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, Division of State Police, for 32 years of service, retiring in April of 2022 with the rank of Captain. He continues his public service as the Deputy Chief of the Avon (MA) Police Department.

Mr. Bartolotta was the first officer in the State of Connecticut to be certified as a Drug Recognition Expert and a DRE instructor. Several state courts have recognized him as an expert in matters involving Impaired Driving Enforcement, the Standardized Field Sobriety Tests, Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus and Drug Recognition. Mr. Bartolotta has been a featured speaker and panelist at numerous national conferences on underage drinking issues, impaired driving enforcement, fraudulent document recognition, crisis/hostage negotiations and major crime investigations. He has assisted in the publication of two manuals used for law enforcement training. Mr. Bartolotta has regularly lectured at the Pacific Institute for Research and Evaluation's National Leadership Conference during its tenure.

In addition to his vast experience in the field of law enforcement and numerous civic contributions, Mr. Bartolotta has been recognized and has received numerous awards for his accomplishments, which include a DARE Outstanding Student Leadership Award, several MADD high activity/appreciation/ education awards, a Texas Alcohol Beverage Commissioners Appreciation award, a CSP Troop "L" High DWI activity award, three Commissioner Top 20 marksmanship awards, an Outstanding Leadership award for efforts regarding Underage Drinking and CSP Department awards for Bravery, Meritorious Service, Life Saving, Outstanding Service and several Unit Citations, as well as the Sandy Hook Service Ribbon. He has been recognized by the CT Exchange Club as its "Police Officer of the Year" recipient. Mr. Bartolotta was a finalist for the MADD National President's Award, the highest form of praise from this national organization. Lastly, he served as the head chair of the Connecticut Coalition to Stop Underage Drinking.

Mr. Bartolotta earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Management from Dowling College. He is a graduate of the FBI's National Academy, Session #281, and received a master's certificate in Organizational Leadership and Management. He has earned his Masters of Public Safety from the University of Virginia.

Questions? 860.593.6550 - Click Here to Enroll.